

Greg Kester

President & Owner of Alpha Omega Gymnastics
FIG Brevet – Men's International Gymnastics Judge

Greg Kester began his gymnastics career in 1981. He has been involved with all aspects of the sport. He has been a competitor, judge, recreational instructor, competitive coach, business manager, and administrator. Below are his career highlights:

1981-1991: Competitor:

Central Junior High School, Trinity High School, Texas Academy of Gymnastics, the University of Illinois at Chicago

- 1986 USGF Class II Texas State Champion
- 1987-1991 Full Gymnastics Scholarship to the University of Illinois at Chicago
- 1991 – Individual Qualifier to the NCAA National Championships

1985-2003: Recreational Instructor/Competitive Coach, Business Manager, Administrator

- 1984-1987 Instructor - Trinity High School & LD Bell Class Program; TAG
- 1987-1991 Bedford Park District – Bedford Park, IL; Various Camps @ other locations
- 1991-2006 ASI Gymnastics, Dallas School of Gymnastics, & Metroplex Gymnastics

1983-Present: Men's Gymnastics Judge

Jr. High School, High School (THSGCA, IHSGCA), TGJA, NGJA, USAG, NCAA, FIG, & others

- 15 Texas High School State Championships, Numerous District & Regional Championships
- 1,000+ High School, Junior Olympic, & NCAA Competitions across Texas, Illinois, Region III, and the US
- 6 Junior Olympic National Championships, Numerous Region III Championships
- 7 NCAA National Championships, Numerous MPSF Championships
- 9 USA Championships, 7 USA Qualifiers, 2 USA National Winter Cups, & 1 US Olympic Trials
- 2013 Central American Games – San Jose, Costa Rica; 2015 American Cup – Dallas, TX; 2015 Olympic Hopes Cup – Liberec, CZE
- NGJA Junior Olympic Technical Director (2004-2008), Junior Olympic National Apparatus Leader (2005, 2006), NGJA Midwest Director (2008-2012), TGJA Secretary (2010-2016), NGJA Technical Secretary (2012-2016)

2006-2017: Corporate America (Boo!)

Senior Manager of Accounts for AMN Healthcare – a Physician staffing agency

2017-Present: Alpha Omega Gymnastics - Allen (Yay!)

President & Owner

Passionately working with kids and creating a very fun and exciting experience

Greg resides in Allen, Texas with his wife of 25+ years, Catherine. He has 3 daughters; Valerie (23 and married to Ryan), Allie (21), and Macie (17). He is an active Deacon at his church and enjoys family time, watching sports, and cooking.